

Trustworthy – A trustworthy person always tells the truth and is someone you can trust.

Instructions: Parents, please help your child with this worksheet. When it is finished, return it to your instructor to earn a stripe.

Name: _____

Imagine you were going to the store with your friends because they wanted to buy some candy. But you did not have any money and you were sad because you knew you would not be able to buy any candy. Then on the way to the store, you found someone's wallet in the parking lot with money in it.

Homework for 4 year olds and older: (Circle the best answer.)

1. What does a trustworthy person do with the money and the wallet?
 - a. Buy some candy with the found money?
 - b. Return the wallet and the money to the store manager?
2. If you lie sometimes, do you think that other people will always trust that what you are saying is true? Yes or No?
3. If you want to be trusted, you should:
 - a. Always tell the truth.
 - b. Its OK to tell little lies sometimes.

Additional homework for 8 year olds and older: (Write your answer on the back.)

4. Pretend you got in trouble at school but knew you could get out if it if made up a story and blamed someone else.
 - a. Would you tell the truth even though you knew that it would get you into trouble OR would you lie to get out of trouble?
 - b. Why?

Trustworthy – A trustworthy person always tells the truth and is someone you can trust.

Instructions: Parents, please help your child with this worksheet. When it is finished, return it to your instructor to earn a stripe.

Imagine you were going to the store with your friends because they wanted to buy some candy. But you did not have any money and you were sad because you knew you would not be able to buy any candy. Then on the way to the store, you found someone's wallet in the parking lot with money in it.

Homework for 4 year olds and older: (Circle the best answer.)

1. What does a trustworthy person do with the money and the wallet?
 - c. Buy some candy with the found money?
 - d. Return the wallet and the money to the store manager?
2. If you lie sometimes, do you think that other people will always trust that what you are saying is true? Yes or No?
3. If you want to be trusted, you should:
 - a. Always tell the truth.
 - b. Its OK to tell little lies sometimes.

Additional homework for 8 year olds and older: (Write your answer on the back.)

4. Pretend you got in trouble at school but knew you could get out if it if made up a story and blamed someone else.
 - a. Would you tell the truth even though you knew that it would get you into trouble OR would you lie to get out of trouble?
 - b. Why?